

Jorge Vega Joins Gonzalez Chiscano Angulo & Kasson, PC. as Of Counsel

San Antonio, TX - March 18, 2014 -- Jorge Vega has joined Gonzalez Chiscano Angulo & Kasson, PC. As Of Counsel with GCAK, Mr. Vega has an active roll with client needs and cases and the everyday legal practice of the Firm.

Mr. Vega previously served seven years at the Texas Attorney General's Office (five as First Assistant Attorney General and two as Chief of the General Litigation Division,) He also served three years as the Planning Director for the City of Bellingham, Washington, handling all the planning and legal issues that revolve around land use, planning, and zoning.

In private practice, in addition to representing business and individual clients, Jorge represented major governmental entities most recently serving as legal counsel for the Muscogee County School District (population of 32,000 students) and Columbus Water Works in Columbus, Georgia the equivalent to the San Antonio Water System, providing not only legal services but also advice as to governance.

Throughout Mr. Vega's career, he has worked with business and community leaders, state, county, city, and federal officials, members of the legislature and the judiciary, and members of the public to address concerns of public interest.

"Sometimes the designation of 'Of Counsel' is interpreted as someone who is semi-retired or perhaps just assisting in a few matters for a Firm. That will not be the case with Jorge Vega." said David Angulo, Partner and President of GCAK, "Jorge is quickly becoming an active participant in all aspects of the Firm, especially our litigation and trial work. His knowledge and experience greatly enhance our level of service to our clients."
