Since 1997, David Angulo has represented clients in commercial and civil litigation. His practice has been primarily focused on business disputes, including areas such as product liability, employment, construction, deceptive trade practices, and contract disputes. His cases often go to trial. He has successfully defended clients in cases where the damages sought ranged from $10,000 to over $1 billion. He has also successfully handled claims on behalf of plaintiffs, including breach of contract, misappropriation of assets, breaches of fiduciary duty, construction defects and employee theft. David prides himself on getting results for clients as quickly as possible through aggressive and efficient work.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS:

- Co-lead counsel in successful trial defense of local HVAC company accused of fraud, misrepresentations and violations of the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act.
- Lead counsel in arbitration defending doctor sued for alleged violations of non-compete provision. Prevailed on reformation of the non-compete, resulting in zero damages owed to Plaintiff and prevailed and recovered on counterclaims, including breach of contract and attorneys' fees.
- Co-trial counsel for a national client in numerous trials ranging from three to eleven weeks resulting in zero verdicts in favor of client. Trials included complete victories in Illinois, New Jersey, Texas, Kentucky, and two in California. Multiple other cases started trial, or got to the eve of trial, and settled favorably in several states around the country.
- Lead counsel for Plaintiff in a case alleging our client's company was completely destroyed by the wrongful conduct of another company, resulting in multi-million dollar settlement in favor of our client.
- Lead counsel for major telecommunications company in negligence action resulting in favorable settlement.
- Won summary judgment for client within 90 days of entering case alleging fraud and alleged misrepresentations in the sale of a business.
- Won summary judgment in premises liability case involving slip and fall at large national retail chain.
- Won summary dismissal in Federal Court and another in Texas District Court, in products liability cases on behalf of national tire company.
- Successfully brought wrongful termination case in Texas Federal Court on behalf of employee alleging ADA and ADEA violations, resulting in favorable settlement for client.
- Successfully brought and resolved employee theft cases on behalf of several corporate clients in and around San Antonio, Texas.
- Favorably resolved dispute between a local high-profile business owner and a supplier within 60 days of filing suit in Federal Court.
- Successful resolution of threatened litigation involving dissolution of partnership without the need for a lawsuit.
- Participated on national product liability defense teams for products such as VIOXX, PPA and Baycol.

- Successfully defended several companies against wrongful termination claims, including Sabine Pilot claims and alleged violations of the FLSA and age and disability laws.
- Successfully represented both plaintiffs and defendants in construction cases alleging faulty building construction.
- Successfully defended large national energy company in gas pricing dispute.
